

Family Mediation Canada is proud to present a three part series of web seminars on Elder Mediation with Judy McCann-Beranger.

This three part series will take place on August 19, September 8 and October 5, 2010 at 3:00 - 4:00 P.M. Eastern Standard Time.

Information about the webinar series:

The advancing age of our population combined with a belief that all people deserve quality of life has resulted in elder issues and issues of aging steadily finding their way into the field of mediation. The webinar series is based on research that shows the need to establish a solid foundation from which to build the practice of elder mediation so that families who are dealing with issues associated with aging have greater awareness of the options available to help them.

Who Should Attend? Mediators interested in elder mediation, lawyers, physicians, nurses, psychologists, social workers, educators, pastoral care workers and other health care professionals wishing to enhance their knowledge of age related issues and the growing specialty of elder mediation.
