

Web Resources

Evaluation and Logic Models

<http://www.wkkf.org/>

You may request an excellent free CD “WK Kellogg Foundation Evaluation Handbook/ Logic Model Development Guide CD” through the W.K. Kellogg Foundation’s Web site. It includes a thorough discussion of logic models and using them to evaluate your work.

Foundation Center Learning Opportunities

<http://www.foundationcenter.org/learn/>

The Foundation Center’s Web site includes e-learning courses in proposal writing, budgeting, conducting research, and other useful skills. If you live near one of the Center’s branch libraries, you also can sign up for their workshops and classes.

Grant Proposal.com

<http://www.grantproposal.com/>

Well-organized Web site with good tips about grant proposal writing. It describes itself as “a site devoted to providing free resources for both advanced grantwriting consultants and inexperienced nonprofit staff.”

Innonet

<http://www.innonet.org/>

Get help with planning and evaluation at the Innovation Network site.

Logic Model Development Guide

<http://www.wkkf.org/Pubs/Tools/Evaluation/Pub3669.pdf>

The W.K. Kellogg Foundation offers a comprehensive article about developing logic models.

Logic Model Template

http://www.service-learningpartnership.org/site/DocServer/Tool_2_Logic_Models.pdf?docID=2282

The Center for Youth and Communities at the Heller School for Social Policy and Management, Brandeis University, offers a useful logic model outline and blank for for you to use.

Portal for Grantwriting Information

<http://www.libraryspot.com/features/grantsfeature.htm>

A user-friendly site that includes links to other grantwriting resources

The Grantsmanship Center

<http://www.tgci.com>

Offers training programs and publications about grantwriting

Givespot

<http://www.givespot.com/resources/grantseekers.htm>

Givespot provides links to an array of information for grant seekers from finding funders to writing and refining proposals

Services for Proposal Writers

<http://www.Grantwriters.com>

A Web site for grant proposal writers that includes free information about what's new in the grant writing world; a bookstore of grant writing information, training opportunities that include open workshops, on-site programs, and Web-based instruction; and other services for grantseekers

Proposal Writer Search Engine

<http://www.proposalwriter.com/search.html>

Consultant Deborah Kluge provides a search engine you can use to find grant information and a directory you can browse for a list of grants by government agency.

Proposal Checklist

<http://www.proposalwriter.com/checklist.html>

Deborah Kluge provides a thorough checklist for preparing grant proposals, focused primarily on social service and USAID proposals

Professional Organization for Fundraisers

<http://afpnet.org>

The Association of Fundraising Professionals provides training and networking opportunities for people who work raising money

Ten Common Reasons Grants are Declined

<http://www.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/ten.htm>

This brief document identifies common reasons that grants are denied and suggests ways you, as a grantseeker, can address and avoid them