

Family Mediation Canada / Médiation Familiale Canada

Membership Application

Family Mediation Canada is an interdisciplinary association of professionals, working together, creating a better way to provide for co-operative conflict resolution relating to families. FMC was established in 1985 as a charitable, not-for-profit association.

We help families succeed by providing referrals to Consumers and information to Family Mediators and other like-minded organizations across Canada. Family Mediation in times of conflict can dramatically reduce the human and financial cost of conflict resolution. Contact us today for more information.

FMC is a nationally registered Charitable Organization with Affiliates across Canada.

Our Vision:

Excellence in Family Mediation.

Our Mission:

Family Mediation Canada (FMC) is a national organization dedicated to the promotion of mediation and other forms of conflict resolution for individuals, families, workplaces and communities.

ABOUT FMC MEMBERSHIP:

FMC and your provincial/territorial association are a part of a network of interdisciplinary professionals made up of private and court connected mediators, lawyers, social workers, judges, human services, health care professionals, clergy, and students. We work together to create a better way to provide for cooperative conflict resolution.

WHAT WE DO:

- FMC has the only national certification program for family mediators
- FMC is a clearing-house of information for family mediators and other professionals interested in the field
- FMC has earned nationwide respect, and is recognized by both government and non-government organizations as a leader in family mediation
- FMC works in partnership with government agencies and with non-government organizations, to promote the best interests of the public and to advance the use of mediation as an alternate form of dispute resolution
- FMC does more than any other organization in Canada to offer learning opportunities for family mediators, through its conferences and webinars
- FMC provides awareness at a national level to consumers and other professionals on the benefits of mediation
