PREPARING FOR ELDER MEDIATION CERTIFICATION

A FAMILY MEDIATION CANADA WEBINAR

Presented by Judy M. Beranger

March 31, 2021, 2:00pm Eastern, 1.5 hours

Topic Description:

The importance of aspiring to a national/international Elder Mediation standard promotes competency for Elder Mediators. It affirms that they have worked toward deepening their sensitivities in this important area. Nationally certified Elder Mediators grow their commitment and competency skills to work professionally and ethically in this developing field of practice. Holding certification heightens dedication to ongoing learning and training sensitivities. Due to FMC's strong partnership with the Elder Mediation International Network (EMIN), recipients of FMC's National Elder Mediation certification will automatically be internationally recognized and added to the EMIN roster.

Topics covered will include:

- Review & explanation of certification requirement levels
- Review of certification requirements
- Review of subject areas of education and experience required with special emphasis on ageism and safeguarding vulnerable adults
- Who is best suited to be an Elder Mediator?
- Consideration of applicant's prior learning and experience
- Elder Mediation practice during COVID
